ASSOCIATION OF WEST HIGH ALUMNI ATHLETES

11th ANNUAL HALL OF HONOR DINNER

FEATURED SPEAKER:
Dave Lapham

Inductees with no class year listed are not West High graduates.

MEET DAVE LAPHAM

Dave Lapham, born June 24, 1952, in Melrose, Massachusetts, was offensive lineman for the Cincinnati Bengals from 1974 to 1983 and the United States Football League's New Jersey Generals 1984–1985. During his career, he played all five line positions and was a key player on the 1981 Bengals squad that won the AFC championship, but ultimately lost Super Bowl XVI to the San Francisco 49ers.

Lapham attended Wakefield Memorial High School in Wakefield, Massachusetts, where he was a three-year letterman and captain in basketball and football, and a four-year letterman and captain in track. He is a member of the school's hall of fame.

He then attended Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Communications. At Syracuse, he lettered three seasons in football and was a team captain. He played in the 1973 East-West Shrine Game, the North-South Game, the Senior Bowl and the Hula Bowl. In 1973 he received the Joseph Alexander award given to a Syracuse player for excellence in football, scholarship and citizenship.

Lapham was selected by the Bengals in the third round of the 1974 draft. He played with them until 1983, when he signed a 10-year guaranteed personal services contract with business tycoon Donald Trump, the majority owner of the New Jersey Generals.

After his retirement, Lapham became a Bengals broadcaster, and just completed his 28th consecutive season. He is the color analyst on Bengals' radio broadcasts with partner Dan Hoard handling play-by-play duties, also hosting Bengals Weekly with Marvin Lewis.

He works on Fox Sports Net's broadcasts of Big 12 Conference games, and appears as a panelist on WLWT's Sports Rock. He broadcast NFL games for NBC-TV and FOX-TV, and worked the NFL Europe league's World Bowl game for Sporting News Radio. Lapham has also worked with Cincinnati Bengals long-time play-by-play voices Brad Johansen, Phil Samp (the Bengals' original announcer) Ken Broo, Ohio State University play-by-play announcer Paul Keels and USC Trojans' announcer Pete Arbogast on Bengal broadcasts during the course of his tenure as color man.

Lapham resides in Cincinnati with his wife, Lynne. They have two grown children, Dave Jr. and Sarah. Lapham is active in the Cincinnati community and is president of the charitable foundation Charities M.D., which awards scholarships to students pursuing a career in healthcare.
